4.1 Committee Round Table Discussion

Ann explained the situation about the blind woman who was trying to cross the street, and was surrounded by kids on ebikes. Michael said there was a big push by EGPD on January 29th to the areas around the schools for an ebike enforcement and education effort. There were some individuals that have been caught multiple times using ebikes without meeting all the legal requirements, and they've been subject to enforcement. EGPD has also partnered with EGUSD to do in-school education. Those who have their ebikes confiscated face high impound fees to get them back. Joe asked how people who aren't on social media could be educated on the ebike issue. The committee gave Michael some good ideas on how to do that. The committee will also ask next month's presenter, Christal Love-Lazard, on what ideas and avenues she might know.
